MUSIC IN ST EDMUND'S COLLEGE CHAPEL

The Director of Chapel Music & Organist is Miss Louisa Denby MA (Cantab)
MMus PGDip LRSM CRCO (chapel-music@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk)

The Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir sings for Sunday Mass each week, and membership is open to anyone. There is no audition process, and members range from experienced singers to those who are just starting out. There is no minimum obligation: sign-ups are invited and music planned on a monthly basis.

The Chapel Schola

The Chapel Schola is open to students of St Edmund's and the wider University; Choral Awards are available for members of the College. The Schola generally sing one- or two-to-a-part, so a high standard of musicianship is required. Entry is by audition. The commitment is roughly eight hours a term, providing an ideal opportunity for experienced singers who for whatever reason are unable to commit to the busier schedule of another Collegiate Choir.

Singing lessons are available free-of-charge to members of both choirs. The Director of Chapel Music welcomes enquiries at any stage of the year.

THE VON HÜGEL INSTITUTE

The Von Hügel Institute, for critical Catholic enquiry, is part of St Edmund's College. For further information about the Institute and forthcoming events please visit <https://www.vhi.st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk>

THE COLLEGE

St Edmund's College is unique among all the colleges of Oxford and Cambridge in having, by Statute, a Catholic Chapel and a Catholic priest as Dean. The College was founded in 1896 as a house of residence, primarily for Catholic priests reading for degrees in the University. It became an Approved Foundation in 1975, changed its name from St Edmund's House to St Edmund's College in 1986, achieved full collegiate status in 1996, and received its Royal Charter in 1998.

THE CHAPEL

The College Chapel is a Grade II listed building, designed by Father Benedict Williamson CSSP. Its foundation stone was laid in 1915 by Cardinal Bourne (the then Archbishop of Westminster) and opened in 1916 by Francis Keating (the then Bishop of Northampton). The bronze sculpture of St Edmund of Abingdon (the College's patron), commemorating the Chapel's centenary, is by Rodney Munday.

Chapel is accessible every day, morning to evening, from within the College at the end of the main corridor in the Norfolk Building, and from outside through the main door. All members of the College, as well as visitors, are welcome to attend all events taking place in the Chapel.

THE DEAN

Father Ed Hone, the Dean, is a Catholic priest and a member of the Redemptorist Order. He is available to all members of the College, and his office is next door to Chapel. Please feel free to make contact by email (eh669@cam.ac.uk & dean@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk) or phone: +44 (0) 7727 669 669 or 01223 336123.

The Dean's Assistant is the Reverend Professor Allen Brent (alb13@cam.ac.uk).

DONATIONS

A collection is taken at Mass on Sundays towards Chapel expenses; in addition, there is a contactless card terminal in Chapel porch where donations may be made. Gift Aid forms and envelopes are also available. The Chapel community support several charitable organisations. For more information please contact the Dean.

MINISTRIES

If you would like to read or serve at Mass or be instituted as an Extraordinary Minister of the Holy Eucharist, please contact the Dean.
